KPFA News 10 Jul 74
transcribed
from tape

Earl Warren died yesterday at the age of 83. There were many statements today praising Warren's role as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and before that, Governor of California, including a statement by Sen. Ted Kennedy, praising Warren's role in the controversial Warren investigation of the assassination of President John Kennedy.

[Item continues with details of Warren's career.]